Private CAPE WINELANDS Tour

"Today, praise be to God, wine was made for the first time from Cape grapes."

– JAN VAN RIEBEECK, 1659

It has been said of the Cape Winelands, that one could go out every weekend for a year to explore new estates on each outing and still not exhaust the extensive variety of places to be visited. They all offer up an exceptional quality of great wine, taste-filled dining and unique experiences.

There are few places on earth that can rival the Cape Winelands, it's unique combination of culture, history and people, make it stand out alone with little comparison. Often called the "Gastronomic Capital of South Africa", the Cape Winelands is where you come to feast on the beautiful landscape with your eyes and feed your soul with award-winning cuisine and wines, that can rival some of the best in the world.

FALL IN LOVE

Franschhoek, was founded by the French Huguenot settlers, who fled religious persecution at the advent of the French Revolution and found shelter under Dutch rule, in what was known as "Elephant's Corner". This quaint and romantic town plays host to some of South Africa's most famed eateries and is surrounded by some of the region's top wine estates. Other interesting places to indulge are the artisanal chocolatier's boutique, art galleries, décor boutiques and the fine examples of Victorian and Cape Dutch architecture. Restaurants line the main street of Franschhoek and one is spoilt for choice. Both Boschendal and Vergelegen are the region's best examples of original Cape Dutch estate living at its finest and are worth a visit.
